

Medical Assistants are in Great Demand

Become a Medical Assistant in as little as 9 months

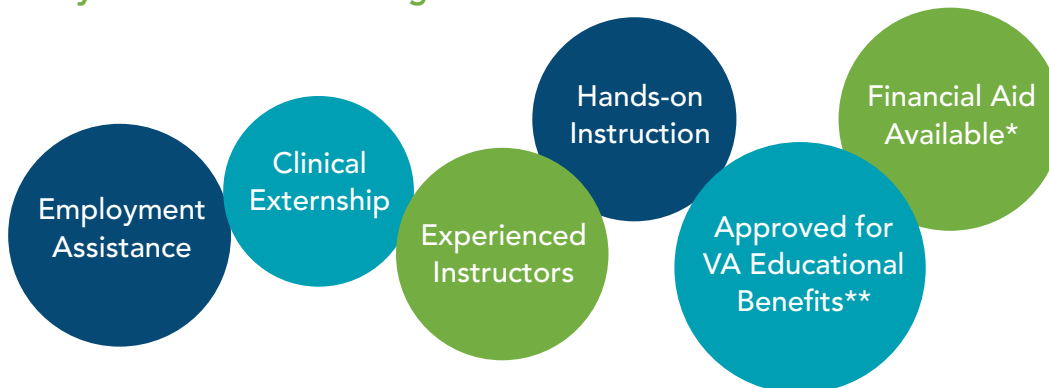

If a doctor is the heart of a clinic, then a Medical Assistant is its pulse. Doctors rely on MAs to help provide the best care, and patients depend on MAs for guidance through the complex healthcare process.

The Medical Assisting program at Unitek College emphasizes both the administrative and clinical skills you'll need to find a rewarding job in the medical field. Medical Assisting students also learn through hands-on experience, constructive peer groups, and supervised clinical hours throughout the program.
